The Ten Rules of Concert Etiquette

(For Adults)

MEMBER THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR MUSIC EDUCATION
www.musicfriends.org

- 1 Refrain from talking
This is the first and greatest rule.
This rule includes whispering to or disciplining your other children.
- 2 Refrain from unwrapping noisy candy wrappers during the performance
If the composer wanted to include crinkle paper noises to the music, he/she would have written it into the parts.
- 3 Turn off pagers, cell phones, and watch alarms
While many phones and pagers now have very symphonic-like rings, they don't always fit into the musical score, nor do they provide pleasant sounds for your neighbors.
- 4 Do not wave to your child during the concert
After all, they do know who you are already and they know you are there; you most likely brought them to the concert.
- 5 Do not take flash photography
You don't want your child to walk off the edge of the stage from flash blindness, do you?
- 6 Please do not walk down the center aisle with your video camera
Video cameras work just as well from the back of the auditorium (besides; the light is usually not good enough for video taping anyway.)
- 7 Do not leave as soon as your child's portion of the concert is over
All of the students deserve a full audience for their performances. Remember, the next time your child's song could be last!
- 8 Applaud at appropriate times
Some music has several sections. Remember, it's not over until all of the sections have been performed.
- 9 Do not leave the auditorium during the music
Wait for a break in the concert to visit the restroom, unless you are carrying a screaming child, in which case you should leave quietly and quickly, PLEASE!
- 10 Go to the concert expecting the best
You just might be surprised how good your student sounds when the other students join in!
