Ensemble Concert

Thank you for attending the LHS Vocal Ensemble Concert! This spring concert showcases the six vocal ensembles at Lincoln High School. Participation in each ensemble is by audition in the spring of the previous school year. Ensemble members must also be in a large choir (Girls Chorale, Cadet Choir, or Concert Choir). Each ensemble rehearses for 25 minutes a day during the lunch periods.

Program Order

Bel Canto is comprised of 10th through 12th grade women. Bel canto is an Italian phrase which means “beautiful voice.”

Canto Fratelli is comprised of 9th through 12th grade men. Canto Fratelli is a Latin phrase which means “singing brothers.”

Cantare is comprised of 9th grade women. Cantare is a Latin word which means “to sing.”

Cliff Avenue Singers is a mixed ensemble comprised of 10th through 12th grade students.

Sotto Voce is comprised of 10th through 12th grade women. Sotto Voce is an Italian phrase which means “in a subdued voice.”

Chamber Choir is a mixed ensemble comprised of 11th and 12th grade students. These students are all members of Concert Choir.

Linda Conrad

Mrs. Linda Conrad is a native of Sioux Falls, SD. This is her 33rd year of teaching in Music Education. She earned her vocal and instrumental music education degree at the University of Nebraska at Lincoln and her Masters of Science in Education with an Emphasis in Leadership through Southwest Minnesota State University. She has done extensive post-graduate work at South Dakota State University, University of South Dakota, Morningside College, Black Hills State University, University of Sioux Falls, Northern State University, Augustana, and Hamline University.

Mrs. Conrad has taught in multiple schools in the Sioux Falls community for 33 years. She has taught at all levels in both Vocal and Instrumental. Her High School experience started at Roosevelt High School where she worked with Al Stanga to open Roosevelt as a new High School and establish a vocal program there. After teaching at Roosevelt for 8 years, Linda stepped back to do some part time work in music and to spend time raising children and caring for a parent suffering from cancer. In 2006, she returned to teaching full time at the High School level at Lincoln High School. Mrs. Conrad is currently in her 13th year at Lincoln High School. Mrs. Conrad directs the Concert Choir, Girls Chorale, Chamber Choir, Bel Canto, Sotto Voce, LHS Men of Note, and LHS Women of Note.

In addition, Mrs. Conrad had a private studio for years and has served in the capacity of church choir and brass director, adjudicator, festival director, and as an accompanist for the Singing Boys of Sioux Falls, the Sioux Falls Master Singers, various festivals, and SD Honor Choir. She has chaired Festival of Bands and SD All-State Chorus and Orchestra, and currently serves as the Repertoire and Standards Chair for Women's Voices for SD. She is an active member and presenter for ACDA and SDMEA. Throughout her 33 years of teaching her vocal and instrumental students and groups have performed throughout the community, at sporting events, state and regional conventions as well as participated in local, state, regional and national honor bands and choirs.

In 2016, Mrs. Conrad received an Exceptional Teaching Award from Stanford University.

In 2018, Mrs. Conrad received a Lifetime Achievement Award from the SD American Choral Directors Association.

Mrs. Conrad loves to travel and her hobbies include hiking, biking, reading and spending time with her spouse, three children, their spouses, and a new grandson.

Kathy Ferguson

Mrs. Kathy Ferguson is a native of Freeman, South Dakota and is in her 29th year as a music educator. She serves as the assistant choral director at Lincoln High School in Sioux Falls, South Dakota where she works with the Cadet Choir, Cliff Avenue Singers, Cantare, Canto Fratelli, LHS Men of Note, and LHS Women of Note.

Mrs. Ferguson received her B.A. in Music Education from Bethel College in North Newton, Kansas. She spent her first year teaching K-12 vocal music in Ellendale, Minnesota. Following that year, she joined the Sioux Falls School District and began teaching at Cleveland Elementary. After spending several years at the elementary level, Mrs. Ferguson transitioned to Lincoln High School as assistant vocal director and taught there for twelve years until 2003. At that time, she took some time away from teaching and served as worship director in music ministry at Church at the Gate in Sioux Falls for several years. There she also served as director for the children and Adult choirs. In 2009 she had the opportunity to return to teaching at Lincoln High School.

During her teaching career she has served as accompanist for various festivals, South Dakota Honor Choirs, South Dakota All-State Chorus, and maintained a private studio teaching piano.

Mrs. Ferguson is an active member of ACDA and SDMEA.

Mrs. Ferguson loves spending time with her husband Bret and their children, and granddaughter. She also enjoys cooking, baking, walking, biking and traveling.
